

Northumberland County has over 500 miles of shoreline and dozens of bodies of water to explore!

From the Yeocomico River to Indian Creek, the "Mother County of the Northern Neck" boasts dozens of beautiful waterways for paddlers, from secluded marsh headwaters to undeveloped beaches with wide Chesapeake Bay views.

Paddler's Guide to Northumberland County courtesy of:

Photos: Andy Sitison, Brenda Sylvia - Silver Raven Studios, Katie Wilkins
Design: Mike Ahart, Aaron Land, Lynton Land
Printing: Design Printing, Callao, VA

VIRGINIA IS FOR OUTDOOR LOVERS™

Made from sustainable and recycled product - please recycle

Paddler's Guide to Northumberland County, Virginia

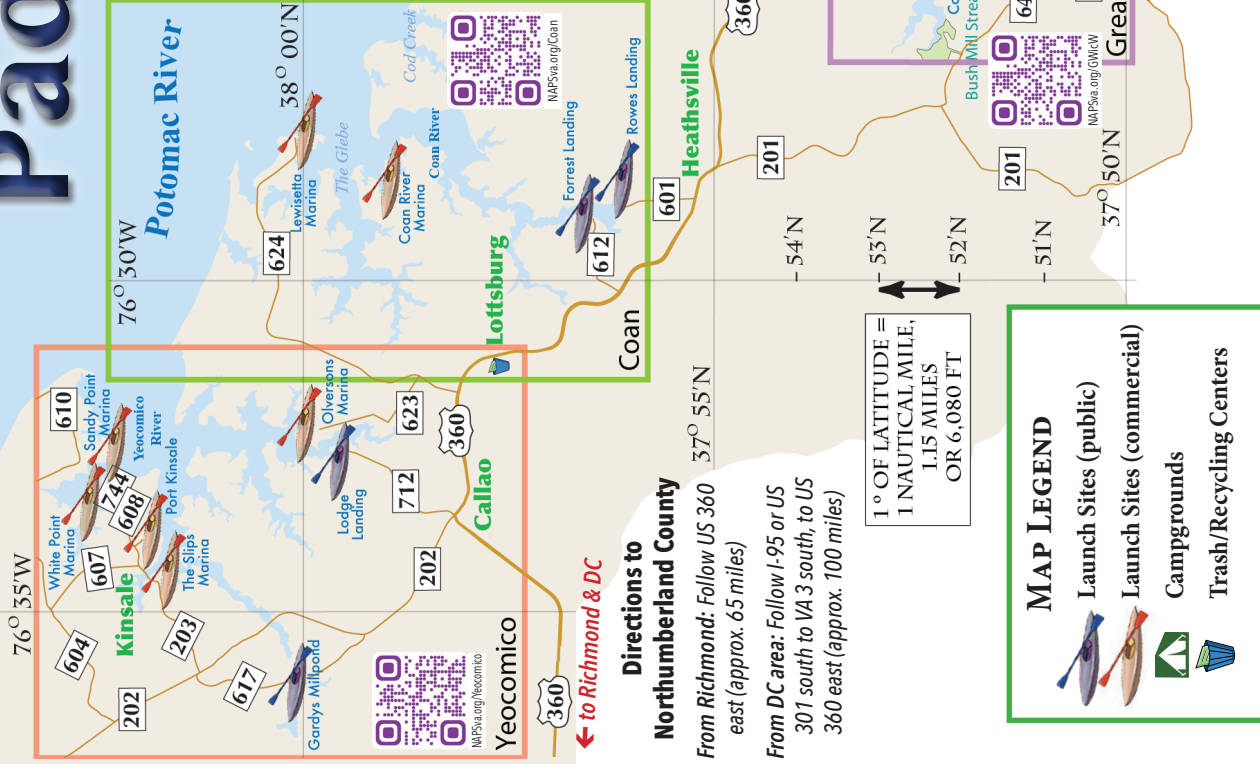

Paddler's Guide

to Northumberland County, VA

Each downloadable map includes details, directions and experience-rated paddling routes, updated regularly. To download a map, scan adjacent QR-code (or visit web address below code).

Each map also includes tide & weather links, a safety checklist and stewardship guidelines.

Paddlers land for lunch at Horn Harbor Restaurant at Blue Compass Marina on the Great Wicomico River, one of the many waterfront eateries in Northumberland County

Lodging, Dining & Attractions

Northern Neck and the Northern Neck have a wide variety of lodging, dining, provisioning, museums, wine and oyster trails, and other area attractions – visit "Do. Stay. Eat." and "northernneck.org" for listings (scan QR-codes below).

northernneck.org

Do. Stay. Eat.

